Part 1 - To be completed by the employee

- For each of the following statements, indicate whether it applies to you. If it applies, check "YES." If it does not apply, check "NO." If you check "NO" to any of the statements, you are not eligible for the withholding exemption.

	YES	NO
a. I am married to a servicemember (see instructions).....	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. I am domiciled in a state other than Maryland.....	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. My servicemember spouse's permanent duty station is in Maryland, an immediate neighboring state, or the District of Columbia	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
d. I am residing and working in Maryland only to be with my servicemember spouse while they are stationed in Maryland, an immediate neighboring state, or the District of Columbia	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
- If you checked "YES" to ALL of the statements in item 1, provide the following information for you (the employee) and your military spouse. All boxes must be filled in to be valid. If you checked "NO" to any of the statements in item 1, do not continue because you do not qualify for exemption from Maryland withholding tax for a qualified spouse of a U.S. Armed Forces Servicemember. You must correct your Form MW507 filing if you had entered EXEMPT on line 8 of that form.

FEDERAL PRIVACY ACT INFORMATION Social Security numbers must be included. The mandatory disclosure of your Social Security number is authorized by the provisions set forth in the Tax-General Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland. Such numbers are used primarily to administer and enforce the individual income tax laws and to exchange income tax information with the Internal Revenue Service, other states and other tax officials of this state. Information furnished to other agencies or persons shall be used solely for the purpose of administering tax laws or the specific laws administered by the person having statutory right to obtain it.

Purpose of form

The Veterans Benefits and Transition Act of 2018 (P.L. 115-407) states that the spouse of a servicemember shall neither lose nor acquire domicile for certain purposes of taxation with by reason of being absent from or present in any tax jurisdiction of the United States solely to be with the servicemember in compliance with the servicemembers' orders.

The term "servicemember" means a member of the uniformed services, which includes the armed forces (Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Space Force, Coast Guard), the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, and the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service.

An employee whose wages are exempt from Maryland income tax because of the Act must use Forms MW507 and MW507M to apply for exemption from Maryland income tax withholding.

Instructions for employee

Eligibility

If you are a spouse of a servicemember, you need to complete Form MW507M if you meet all of the following conditions:

- You maintain domicile in a state other than Maryland. See "Domicile outside Maryland" below, and Administrative Release No. 1;
- Your servicemember spouse's permanent duty station is in Maryland, an immediate neighboring state of Maryland (Delaware, Pennsylvania, Virginia or West Virginia), or the District of Columbia; and,
- You are in Maryland only to be with your servicemember spouse who is stationed in Maryland, an immediate neighboring state of Maryland, or the District of Columbia.

Domicile outside Maryland

"Domicile" refers to your residence by law, and is also referred to as your legal residence. It is the place that is your permanent home, and is the place to which you always intend to return whenever you are absent from it. Domicile is based on your intent and actions, which must be consistent.

The Veterans Benefits and Transitions Act provides that a servicemember and the servicemember's spouse may elect to use for the purposes of taxation, regardless of the date on which the marriage occurred, any of the following:

- (a) The residence or domicile of the servicemember;
- (b) The residence or domicile of the spouse;
- (c) The permanent duty station of the servicemember.

Completing Form MW507M

If you meet all of the eligibility requirements for the exemption from withholding, fill out lines 1 through 3 of Part 1. Attach a copy of your military ID card to Form MW507M, Form MW507 and give them to your employer.

When the withholding exemption takes effect

Form MW507M takes effect on the later of (1) the date you give it to your employer or (2) the first payroll period your employer is able to put the exemption into effect. The exemption does not apply to wages paid prior to the date Form MW507M takes effect.

Annual renewal

Form MW507M is valid only for the calendar year for which it is completed. Provided you are still eligible, you must file a new Form MW507 and MW507M for each subsequent year you want to continue the exemption from Maryland withholding.

The due date for renewing Forms MW507 and MW507M is February 15. Your employer may discontinue this exemption from Maryland withholding in the absence of a completed MW507, MW507M and the required documentation showing that you are still eligible for this exemption.

Notification of ineligibility

You must notify your employer to begin the withholding of Maryland income tax from your wages if you become ineligible for the exemption. This would occur in the following cases:

- Divorce from the servicemember;
- Death of the servicemember;
- Change in your domicile to Maryland; or,
- A change in the servicemember's permanent duty station to a location other than Maryland, an immediate neighboring state of Maryland, or the District of Columbia.

Instructions for employer

Requirement to withhold

Maryland income tax law requires you to withhold Maryland income tax from wages paid to an employee if the employee performs services within Maryland and the wages are subject to federal income tax withholding.

Form MW507M exemption

An exception to the requirement to withhold Maryland income tax applies if an employee completes and gives to you Forms MW507 and MW507M. This exception applies only if you have these forms on file for the employee; it is not enough that the employee is eligible for the exemption under the Act.

What you must do

If an employee gives you a completed Form MW507M, do the following:

1. Check to see that all lines in Part 1 are filled in and a copy of the employee's military ID card is attached. If not, return the form to the employee;
2. Fill in Part 2;
3. Keep the original signed Form MW507M and the attached copy of the military ID card for your payroll records; it relieves you of your obligation to withhold Maryland income tax, and you shall be held harmless from liability for withholding based on the employee's representations on the form; and,
4. Mail a copy of the completed Forms MW507, MW507M and attached military ID card to:
